Address of where the food needs to be deliver or name of who is picking up food and time of pick up. We cater mostly for small groups (up to 50 people) but if you have a large order we will be glad to work on your order if you place your order at least three weeks in advance before your event. Once you or your organization place an order you are responsible for the payment of the total charge for the food order unless you cancel the order at least 4 days in advance before the date of the order. Please let us know if you need for the women in the project to serve the food at your event. Serving has an additional charge of $10 hour per member of the coop who is serving. Note: We deliver the food only, if you need plates and silverware and napkins we can provide that at an extra cost.
