Day Laborers Catch Stabbing Suspect

POSTED: 2:31 pm CST December 27, 2006

HOUSTON -- A group of day laborers chased down a man who they saw stab another man on Wednesday, officials told KPRC Local 2.

Houston police said two men got into a fistfight outside a gasoline station on Gessner Drive near Tanner Road at about 10 a.m.

One of the men pulled out a knife, stabbed the other in the stomach and ran away, officials said.

The day laborers chased the man down and held him until police arrived.

Officials said the men were roommates.

The victim was transported to a nearby hospital in critical condition.
